- FC Porto and Telekom Veszprém HC are two teams out of a group of four that share the lead in EHF Champions League group B after three rounds, all with four points.

- Veszprém ended Barça's winning run of 29 group matches in round 3 two weeks ago: 29:28.

- Porto reached the CL knock-out phase for the first time in the club's history last season; they lost to eventual finalists Aalborg Håndbold in the play-offs.

- Veszprém have made it to the EHF FINAL 4 in Cologne six times but are yet to win the trophy.

- Porto are in their 12th CL season; Veszprém in their 27th, just one less than record holders HC PPD Zagreb.

- Veszprém are second in the all-time CL standings with 212 wins, 16 draws and 87 defeats in 315 matches; Porto have 23 wins, 5 draws, and 25 defeats from 53 matches.

- Veszprém won the only two previous matches they played against each other, in the 2019/20 group phase.

- Porto met another Hungarian team in the 2020/21 group phase – Pick Szeged; both teams won at home.

- Porto successfully defended their domestic crown in Portugal in 2020/21; Veszprém, however, lost their national title in Hungary to Szeged.

- Both teams had a successful dress rehearsal for this MOTW with domestic wins: Porto against Os Belenenses (32:25), Veszprém against Kecskeméti TE (42:24).

- One of Porto's former top stars, Miguel Martins, now plays in Hungary, for Veszprém rivals Szeged.

- Two Macedonian national team players will face each other this MOTW: Porto goalkeeper Nikola Mitrevski and Veszprém left wing Dejan Manaskov.

- Also, both sides have a Croatian player in their squad: Ivan Sliskovic (Porto) and Manuel Strlek (Veszprém).

- Three Veszprém players are currently in the top 10 of the CL top scorers list: Petar Nenadic (with 18 goals), Fathy Omar and Gasper Marguc (both 16).

- Porto's best scorer is line player Victor Iturriza (12).

- Veszprém playmaker Rasmus Lauge is making his comeback this season after 10 months out with a torn cruciate ligament; he will face a fellow Dane in the MOTW: Porto goalkeeper Sebastian Frandsen.

- The two coaches have duelled in the German Bundesliga in the past, when current Porto coach Magnus Andersson was leading Frisch Auf Göppingen and Veszprém coach Momir Ilic was playing for THW Kiel.
