- Brest Bretagne Handball are joined leaders in group B of the DELO EHF Champions League with 12 points, Odense Håndbold are ranked fourth with 10 points.

- Last week, Brest won both matches of their double-header against HC Podravka Vegeta, while Odense handed CSKA their first defeat of the CL season.

- Brest and Odense also met in the main round of the 2018/19 season, when the Danish side won both duels.

- Brest have never won a home match against a Danish team in the CL: apart from their defeat against Odense in 2018/19, they also lost against FC Midtjylland in 2017/18 and they drew with FC København in 2018/19.

- Odense also played against another French team in the CL 2018/19 season - Metz Handball; Odense lost the away match in France while they drew in Denmark.

- Brest's Ana Gros is the best scorer this CL season with 61 goals; Lois Abbingh leads for Odense with 34.

- Netting 14 times, Gros was a key factor in Brest's 31:24 win in Odense in October.

- Abbingh led Odense with nine goals, including a late winner, in their 26:25 home win over CSKA last week.

- Both goalkeepers of the Danish national team at the upcoming EHF EURO 2020 are involved in this MOTW: Sandra Toft (Brest) and Althea Reinhardt (Odense).

- Brest's squad includes two more Scandinavian players: Norwegian left back Tonje Loseth and Swedish centre back Isabelle Gullidén.

- Two players moved from Odense to France in the summer of 2020, but not to Brest: Natalie Hagman went to Nantes Atlantique, Nadia Offendal joined Paris 92.

- Odense's squad includes two Dutch world champions: goalkeeper Tess Wester and left back Lois Abbingh, who has arrived from Rostov-Don; former Dutch international Nycke Groot also plays for Odense.

- Both teams have made it to the CL quarter-final once: Odense in 2018/19 (losing to eventual champions Győr), Brest in 2019/20 (cancelled due to Covid-19 pandemic).

- Both head coaches have experience of leading non-European national teams: Brest's Laurent Bezeau coached Tunisia in 2012-13; Odense's Ulrik Kirkely previously led Bahrain and Saudi Arabia and is current head coach of Japan, heading into the Tokyo Olympics.

- Bezeau has been with Brest since 2009 - except for the one year he worked with Tunisia; Kirkely returned to Odense in 2020, replacing Jan Pytlick, after his earlier stint with the Danish club in 2015-17.

- Three non-European players are involved in this MOTW: Mali's Namizata Fofana for Brest, Japan's Ayaka Ikehara and Brazil's Jessica Quintino for Odense.
