Preface

Alongside promotional measures, the Women's project has led to the steady increase in female referees and delegates, who are actively involved in European Championships (as well as World Championships).

The 2nd Conference of Presidents demonstrated an alliance, as did the 1999 Secretaries General Seminar. As a result of this the Extraordinary Congress voted to adopt the Conference of Presidents into the structure of the EHF and in addition to this, paved the way for the 2000 Elections at the Ordinary Congress in April 2000/ISR by expanding the EHF Commissions, in order to keep up with the growth in Club handball and development.

The main thing is that handball is being played!

It is for that exact reason why I wish to thank you all on behalf of the EHF Executive Committee. Despite serious political and economic problems in certain countries, the European Handball competitions have proved to be a great success, with many interesting results which you can read about. This has been made possible by the combination of all our partners from the fields of marketing and media, and especially the active assistance of all players, officials, referees, delegates, club representatives, national federations and other helpers.

Let's look over the events of the past year once again and all look forward together to a thrilling 2000, with four European Championships, a "new" European Cup and.....

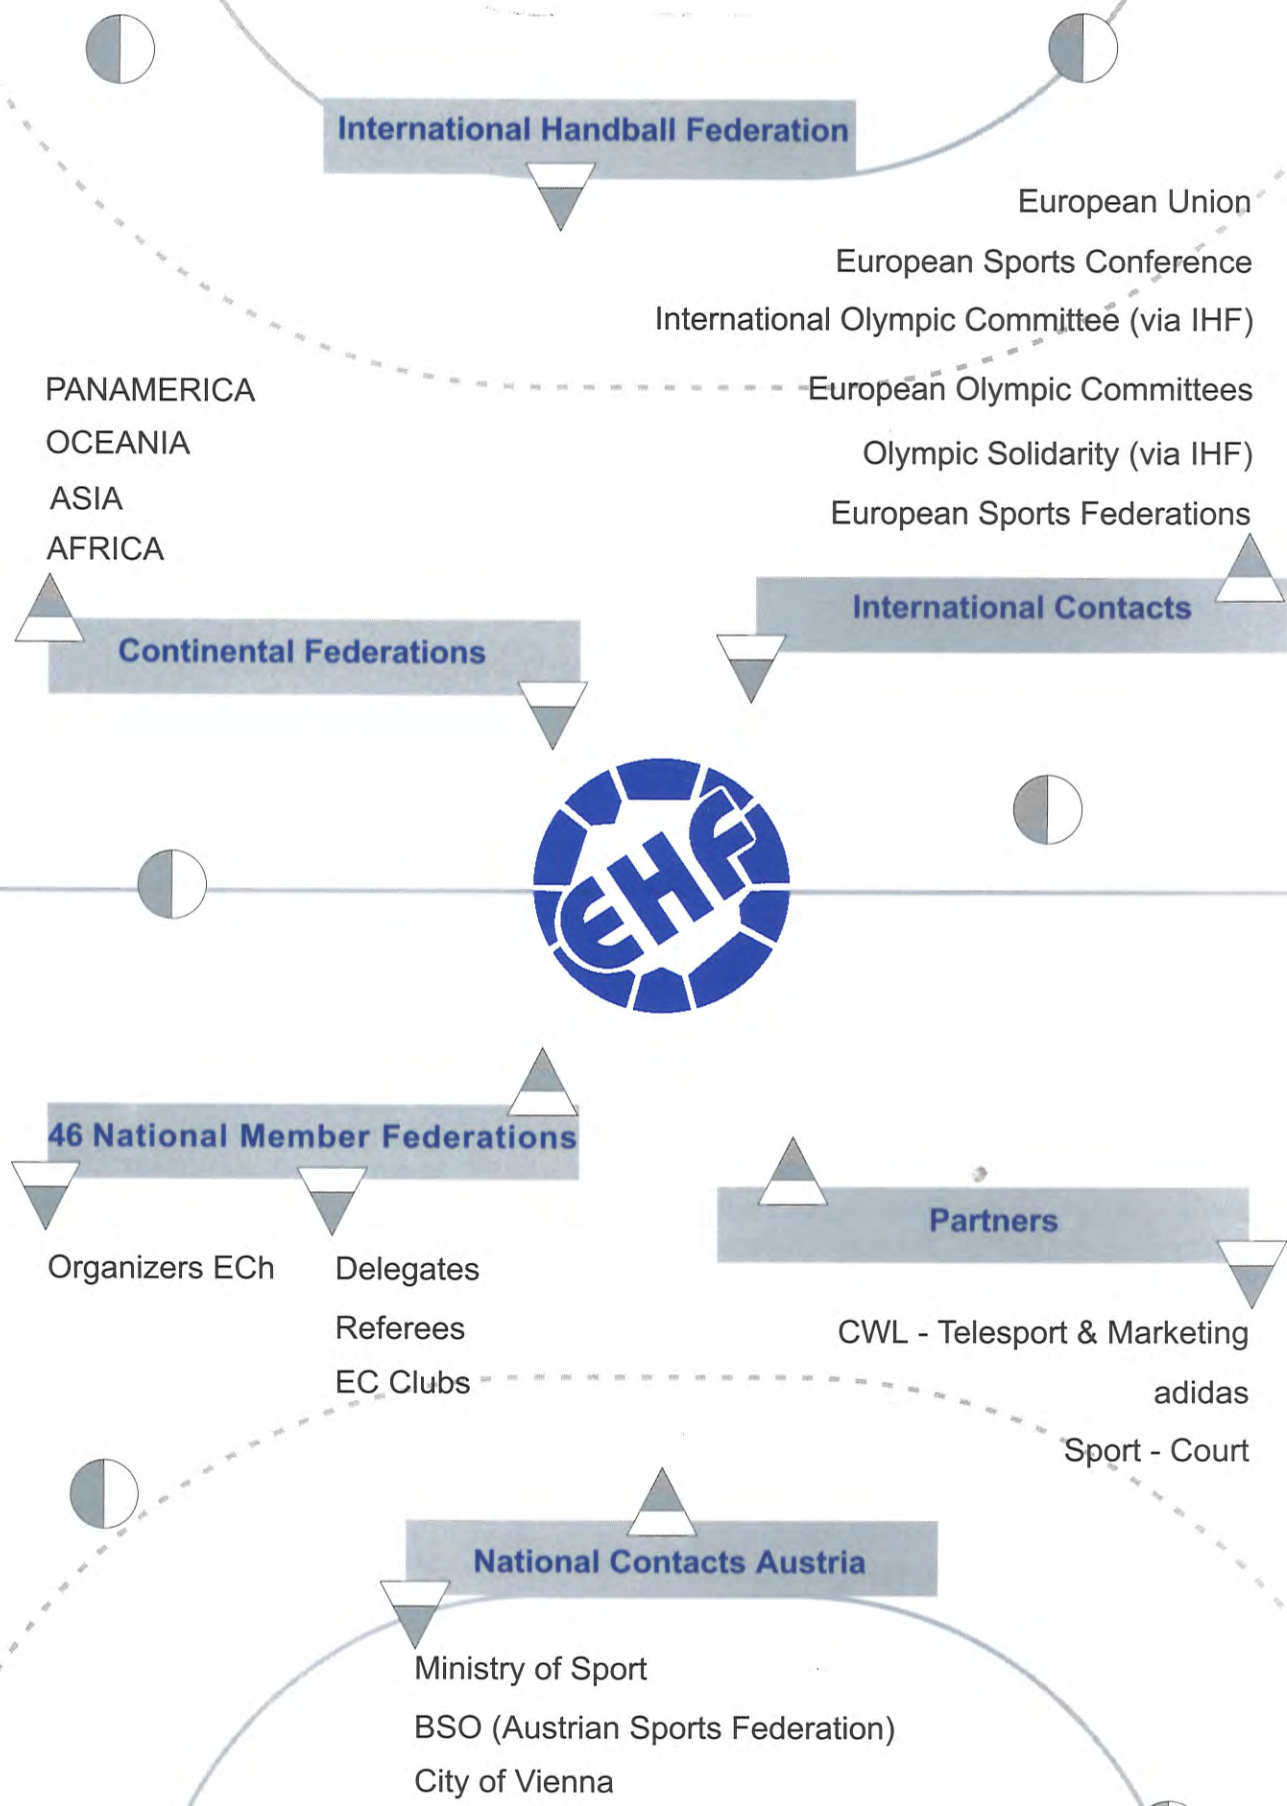

Staffan Holmqvist
EHF President

Dear Handball Friends,

No written report or oral statement can transmit such a varied picture of handball life within the European Handball context as the Annual Report.

As was explained at the 2nd EHF Conference of Presidents, ideas from 1998 have been successfully put into practice. The new Challenge Trophy for men's national teams means that 45 out of our 46 member federations are actively participating in EHF competitions. The inclusion of club representatives in the re-structuring of the European Cup competitions has led to a new structure based on an improved calendar system which also opens up new and interesting marketing potentials. Club handball follows the national team competitions in being fit for the next millennium.

Motions

- The Congress passed resolutions, proposed by the EHF Executive Committee, on the structure of the EHF. (To come into effect 3 months after the Extra Ordinary Congress /February 2000/ and voted on at the 5th Ordinary Congress, April 2000.) While the number of EHF Commissions remains the same they will be expanded in line with the growth of the EHF.
- The Competitions Commission will be complemented by an additional member who will be responsible for club competitions. The Methods Commission will also increase to 5 members, with the additional member working in the area of development. It was unanimously agreed upon that the name of the Arbitration Commission should be changed to the Court of Appeal, which will also gain an extra member.
- The motion to increase the number of Executive Committee members failed to meet the 2/3 majority required for the resolution to be passed, and therefore remains the same, at seven. In addition to these motions, it was clearly stressed that the Congress intends to encourage a more balanced representation of both sexes within the EHF decision-making bodies.
- The Congress voted unanimously for the introduction of a Conference of Presidents, to take place every two years. This will be a consultative forum within the structure of the EHF.

EURO 2000 Promotion / Media Day

24th - 26th September 1999, Zagreb / Rijeka / CROATIA

The European Handball Federation and the Organising Committee of the 2000 Men's European Championship (EURO 2000) joined forces to organise the EURO 2000 Promotion / Media Day in Croatia.

The aim of the EURO 2000 Promotion / Media Day was to find ways of improving and optimising communication, co-ordination and co-operation between the EHF, ECh participants, EHF partners and media representatives.

This event took place from 24th to 26th September 1999 and not only gave the national team coaches, federation representatives and representatives from the world of media the chance to visit both EURO 2000 venues, Zagreb and Rijeka, before the final tournament in January 2000, but was also packed with information on EURO 2000 with additional Media and Technical Workshops on both days of the event. The EHF partners, CWL and Sport Court were also present at the event. The EURO 2000 Promotion / Media Day reached its climax with one of the highlights of the weekend, the draw for the 2001 World Championship / France Qualification Groups and the draw for the EURO 2000 Final Round Groups. The draw attracted a lot of media interest and was broadcast live via Croatia's national television channel, HRT and watched in numerous countries.

EHF Project Beach Handball

Beach Handball is a new and attractive sport governed by the International and Continental Federations. Its characteristics are:

- speed,
- spectacular actions,
- brilliant co-operation and co-ordination,
- extreme fast switch of situations,
- high risk in terms of tactics,
- no risk in terms of injury,
- half leisure activity - half serious competition.

Report of 1999 Beach Handball activities:

Due to the unsatisfying result of the feedback concerning applications for the organization of the final round of the 1999 ECh Beach Handball the ExeC decided to cancel the event for this year but to press on with all the work on the prerequisites necessary for a final round in 2000.

Joint meeting of the Project Group 1999 ECh Beach Handball (J. Guerrero, H. P. Oppermann, W. Pollany) and the CC, MC in Vienna / AUT on January 10th, 1999:

Participants:

- Members of EHF CC and EHF MC
- Members of the Project Group

All participating couples completed the course successfully and therefore the status of EHF Continental referee for Beach Handball was awarded to all of them.

A Beach Handball experts' seminar organized by THF was linked to this course. Certificates for 12 national experts were given by J. Guerrero / EHF MC, who directed the seminar on behalf of the EHF .

The present stage of the development of Beach Handball has to be regarded as very satisfying. All the preparatory work for a final round has been done:

Beach Handball Rules the proposal of the EHF / IHF Working Group has been approved by the IHF and now represents the official rules for Beach Handball worldwide. Along with the rules a specific score sheet was created.

EHFan

The European Handball Fan has been created in order to offer services to the handball-interested public in Europe and the entire world. Here the ordinary, none "federation-related" handball friends have the chance to get information and access to handball publications.

The EHFan membership is offered via the Internet, because this medium can address a very broad international public. As the internet becomes more and more popular, a great number of people can be reached.

In a global sense the EHFan membership could be a support concept for the search of an overall European identity "Help to build up a united Europe".

The main idea is to become a member of the European Handball Family.

The core objective of the first meeting of the working group in 1999 was to work out the basics, the structure and the detailed contents of the Women's Promotion Package consisting of a video, a folder, guidelines and a poster. Apart from this a detailed timetable for the implementation of the package was set up.

The intention of the second meeting in 1999 was:

- to set up a women's action plan 2000
- to initiate the network "handball women"
- to outline the objectives for the meeting of the women coordinators and
- to discuss the necessary supporting measures for national preparations for the "Women's Handball Day".

WOMEN COORDINATORS

The women coordinators should be the persons to contact in the national federations for questions related to women's handball, especially concerning the promotion of women in handball on a national and international level.

Between the different bodies of a national federation, the women coordinators can act as a communication channel between the national federation and the clubs, among the different federations and between the national federations and the EHF.

Women coordinator have been nominated by 32 federations.

ASSUMPTIONS AND RESULTS

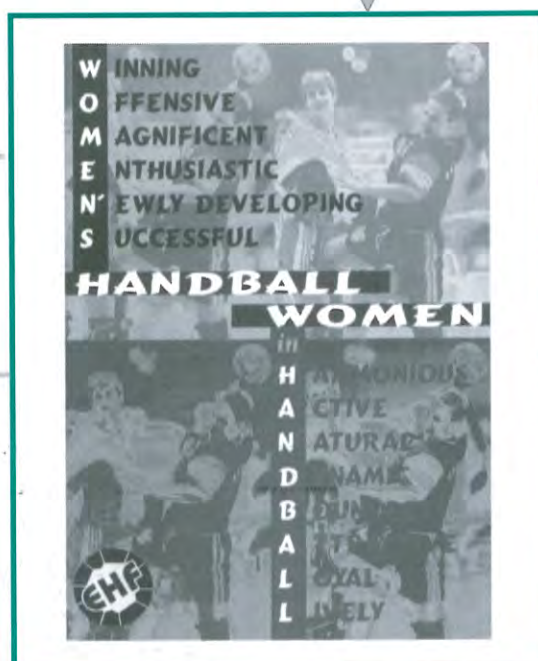

- 36 federations responded positively to the questionnaire "Women in Handball"
- 32 federations submitted nominations to the EHF for a women coordinator
- clear interest of national federations in setting up women's promotion programmes
- different measures to improve women's handball
- about 25 women from about 20 federations confirmed their interest in
- positions within the EHF bodies
- initiation of promoting measures for women
- a great number of the EHF member federations consider supporting measures and encouragement by the EHF as important

WOMEN'S HANDBALL PROMOTION PACKAGE

In autumn 1999 the EHF produced a women's handball promotion package consisting of

- a women's promotion video,
- a folder,
- a poster and
- guidelines.

These women's handball promotion items make up a support package for member federations to strengthen national women's promotion programmes. The basic means is to visualize the strategy to get more women in handball. The language used is a modern one and the impression presented is another way of communication. This common effect should be achieved by different means.

In the light and spirit of women's handball promotion the realisation of this package is one step towards the front on a way which should be continued. Women's handball development/promotion is a big challenge for all people working in handball or who are interested in handball. The continuous implementation of measures will finally succeed.

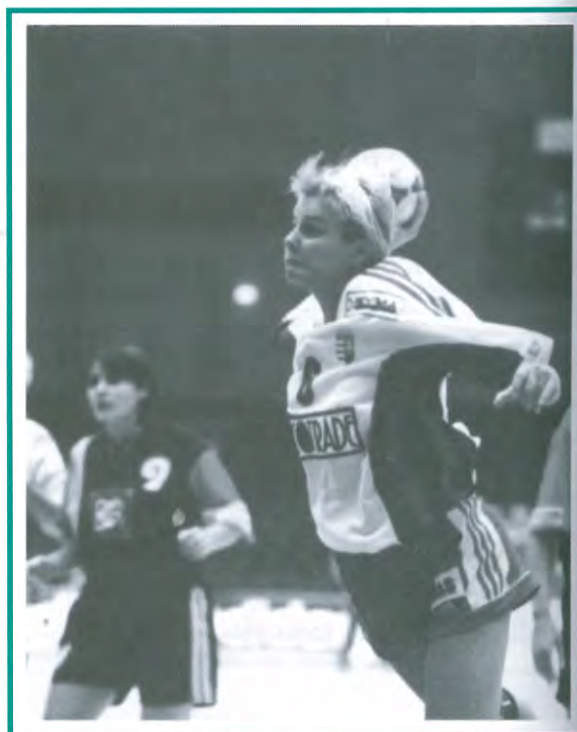

WOMEN'S ACTION PLAN 2000

- Women's Handball Day
- meeting of the Women's Coordinators
- alignment and consolidation of the network "handball women"
- education: Women's Coaches Course
- Women's Nomination
- Media Campaign during the Women's European Championship in Rumania
- coordination of programmes with other organizations

PERSPECTIVES - FUTURE PHILOSOPHY

The European Handball Federation is convinced that it is important to make handball more accessible for women and to help them to overcome regional and cultural barriers.

It is important that women participate in the decision-making procedure in core issues and that they occupy leading functions in the field of national and European sport.

IHF SEMINAR "WOMEN AND HANDBALL"

Prior to the meeting of the working group in Norway in December 1999 the IHF Seminar "Women and Handball" took place. The members of the EHF working group participated in this event.

Female lecturers from all over the world contributed to this seminar by presenting and discussing topics, like female members in national and international sports organizations, media presence in women's handball, technical and medical aspects of women's handball, etc. On this occasion the EHF WOMEN'S PROMOTION PACKAGE was presented.

1999 EHF Development Programme

Already since its foundation in 1991 one of the aims of the European Handball Federation has been the support, development and promotion of handball in Europe as a whole. Taking into account the specific identity of each country of the EHF Member Federations the European Handball Federation endeavours also through the EHF Development Programme to encourage greater unity between its members. The support of handball development in the members countries is creating a sound basis for high-quality handball.

The main areas of the 1999 support measures within the EHF Development Programme were:

1. Challenge Trophy

1st Men's Challenge Trophy

September 14 - 19, 1999 / Nicosia / Cyprus

Participating Nations:

CYP, MDA, GBR, ARM, IRL, MLT

Following the initiative of the so called "smaller handball nations" during the 1998 EHF Congress in Budapest/HUN, a new European Handball Event was born:

The Challenge Trophy

The aim of this tournament is to give handball federations, which do not normally participate in any events organized by EHF a chance to compete in an international handball tournament.

For the first time in history, 6 men national teams came together in Nicosia/CYP to play such a tournament. In 2000 a Women's Challenge Trophy will be organized in Belgium.

NOTES

Conclusion

Dear Handball Friends,

The 1999 Annual Report edition is supposed to mirror all official activities in European Handball. Facts, data and results shall draw a complete picture of what happened in the past year. The number of pages of the EHF Annual Report has been continuously increased since 1993, evidently being a sign of a steadily growing number of events.

Besides all organizational and administrative aspects connected with those activities the EHF is working on an effective system of spreading information to all people interested in handball. Have a regular look at our newly constructed website www.eurohandball.com

Especially in the year 2000 European Handball will offer real highlights such as the Men's European Championship in Croatia, the Men's Junior ECh in Greece, the Women's Junior ECh in France, the Women's ECh in Romania, a new European Cup system as of the 2000/2001 season and many more....
